Patrons Obtaining a TexShare Card

Registered library patrons, ages 18 and over, of the Marion Community Library (MCL) may request a TexShare Card at the circulation desk during normal business hours. Patrons must have had an active borrowing record at Marion Community Library for at least three (3) months and have no overdue items, fines, or fees on their account. A current state-issued photo identification card and MCL card must be provided when applying for or renewing a TexShare card.

Outer-Library TexShare Card Users Obtaining a Library Card

TexShare Card holders may apply for a free Marion Community Library card at the circulation desk during normal business hours. Patrons under 18 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. TexShare Card holders must present a state-issued photo identification card.

Loan Policies for TexShare Card Users

TexShare Card patrons are allowed a maximum of 15 checked-out items at any one time. Renewals will not be granted. TexShare members can check out the following items:

Books - fourteen (14) days.

5 Books on CD - fourteen (14) days.

5 DVDs - seven (7) days.

Items not available for checkout by TexShare Card Patrons include reference books, materials from the local history and genealogy collection, and hotspots. Materials cannot be checked out if there are any overdue materials, fines, or fees on the account.
